Community Picnic in George Street Woods

Sunday 9th of June 12 noon

I will be running this event and anyone is welcome. Please bring along your own food and drink and something to sit on.

Our picnic will be followed by drinks at the Globe.

Let's not let the weather put us off; if it is raining, we will meet at the Globe instead.

The woods are situated and accessed from the back of the Methodist Church Car Park

Natural Causes

Four friends playing live film soundtracks, setting poems (including Ian McMillan), writing songs by email, and collaborating internationally.

Hugh Nankivell's songs, from psychotropic lullabies to frantic stomps, offer quick-fire instrument changes, fractured vocals, and chamber-tight arrangements. Mercurial music, crocodile tearjerkers. Think XTC, Waits, Reich, Wyatt, Zorn.

This gig features Governor's Songs: a song cycle written after a school governors meeting

Natural Causes have played The Vortex, Opera North, Spitalfields and Interrogate! festivals.

Natural Causes are:

- Hugh Nankivell: Fender Rhodes, Piano, Keyboards, Voice
- Chris Dowding: Trumpet, Flugel Horn, Percussion, Voice
- Pat Allison: Clarinet, Guitar, Bass, Percussion, Voice
- Ben McCabe: French Horn, Drum Kit, Voice

You can buy tickets over the phone (£5, and £3 concessions) by calling 01524 831 997 or buy online at

Natural Causes

- Saturday 18 May 7pm
- Picturedrome, Holmfirth

Led by musicians from Huddersfield and London, the band performs an innovative and exciting mix of winds, keyboards, and voices.

Playing live to films connected to Holmfirth and Huddersfield like Maya Deren's beautiful 1945 surrealist At Land; a tribute to composer John Cage whom they met locally eating breakfast; films made for Holmfirth's Faulty Optic's opera, The Wax Inspector, & Bamforth shorts.

Double William: Natural Causes plus Richard Ormrod and Peter Spafford.

Sunday, May 19th, 7.30pm.

Yorkshire College of Music and Drama, St.Marks Ave, LS2 9BN.

Pay what you want.

Natural Causes are, on this occasion: Hugh Nankivell, Ben McCabe, and Chris Dowding.

They will be singing songs about things that flow beneath the ground, writing a song live with the audience, and giving out things to blow.

Material from Scriptophilia -

Songs, poems, and settings of poetry by Laurence Ferlinghetti, Robert Frost, and Lord (Little Alfie) Tennyson.

We might even do some numbers all together... and repair to The Chemic for a social afterwards to which everyone is welcome.
